DE MING a dentist, is working exactly as what was expected of him from his parents. He leads an unexciting life & routine work schedule that bores him tremendously. To add to his frustration, he is living with his overbearing divorced mum, Margaret, who constantly compares him with her friends' successful children and is never satisfied with anything he does. One day, through a motivational workshop he was enlightened and discovers his forgotten - repressed childhood dream. He wants to be a theatrical actor! Motivated, DE MING decides to take the leap of faith! Acknowledging the prejudice & never ending complaints that he will receive from his mother, DE MING decides to do this in secret which sparks off a chain of comical events! DE MING's life turns for the better when he meets an aspiring actress, Delia during an audition. However, the path to acting was not an easy one for a dentist. He goes through an emotional roller coaster ride trying to juggle between work, passion & rejections.
